

NEW YORK/CONNECTICUT REGION'S INSTRUCTOR'S CLINIC
March 21st, 2009
Post University, Waterbury, CT

Times: Starting at 9am to 3pm
Registration starts at 8:30

Important Facts:

- MANDATORY for the Upper Level Candidates
- Clinician is Maureen Pach
- Space permitting it will be open to C1 and D3 to AUDIT the morning session.
- What is it all about??? Basically the nuts and bolts of Instructing, how to design a lesson plan, how to implement it, and an overview of the Pony Club Standards
- Candidates will have the opportunity to bring their lesson plans and work on them with an instructor AND actually instruct to a group of kids (remember this is an important aspect of the Upper Level Tests....so this is a super opportunity).

**All Participants are required to bring a Lesson Plan they have designed.

Lunch will be provided with a $5.00 contribution. There is NO CHARGE for this clinic.

Tentative Schedule:

MORNING:

General discussion/points on Instruction
Standards Review
Overview of tools on the Internet, including the Pony Club Websites.
Q & A

LUNCH: Movies and Lunch. Rolex or other exciting Eventing Movies!

AFTERNOON:

Breakout sessions (individual review of the Lesson Plans)
Hands on activity (teach your lesson to a group of kids)

DIRECTIONS to Post University:

800 Country Club Road □ Waterbury, Connecticut □ USA 06723-2540

From I-84 EAST: (Going East toward Hartford/ Boston) Exit 17 to Route 63 South. Left on Country Club Road. □□

From I-84 WEST: (Going West toward Danbury/ New York) Exit 17 to traffic light. Left on Route 63. Left on Country Club Road. □