Release and Hold Harmless Agreement

WHEREAS, the UNDERSIGNED hereby acknowledges the inherent risks involved in riding and working around horses, which risks include bodily injury from using, riding or being in close proximity to horses, among other risks, and further, that both horse and rider can be injured in normal use or in competition, riding lessons, or schooling;

Carbery Fields Farm, Inc., including its owners, agents and employees, is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities. Section 520-577p of the Connecticut Statute states the following: “ Assumption of risk by person engaged in recreational equestrian activities when, Each person engaged in recreational equestrian activities shall assume the risk and legal responsibility or any injury to his person or property arising out of the hazards inherent in equestrian sports, unless the injury was proximately caused by negligence of the person providing the horse or horses to the individual engaged in recreational equestrian activities or the failure to guard or warn against a dangerous condition, use, structure or activity by the person providing the horse or horses or his agents or employees.”

IN CONSIDERATION, therefore, for the privilege of taking riding lessons and/or working around horses with the owner(s), agents, servants, employees and representatives of Carbery Fields Farm, Inc. (hereinafter collectively referred to as “CF”), the Undersigned does hereby agree to hold harmless and indemnify CF and further release CF, its owner(s), agents, servants, and employees from any liability or responsibility for accident, damage, injury, or illness to the undersigned or any horse owned by the Undersigned or to any family member or spectator accompanying the Undersigned while under the direction and instruction of CF, its owner(s), agents, servants and employees.

This waiver of liability shall commence upon signing and remain in full force and effect as against the undersigned until such time as it is modified in writing.
